TRUSTEES HAVE BUSY MEETING

Several matters of importance came before the trustees of the Chamber of Commerce at their regular session. One of the things of widespread interest to residents of the Territory was the endorsement of the plan to put a panel in the Merchants' Exchange at San Francisco. This panel will be a painting emblematic of an Hawaiian scene. Capt. Coulter, the artist, was in Honolulu for two weeks recently, making sketches for the painting.

The trustees decided to authorize $1500 appropriation for the painting and paneling, and the sum will be raised among members of the Chamber and others anxious to lend their support to the enterprise.

Resolutions expressing sorrow over the death of ex-Governor Clegg were passed.

A letter from President J. F. Morgan, who is in San Francisco, brought before the trustees the matter of being represented at the trans-Mississippi congress, which will be held in San Antonio, Texas, the latter part of this month. Hawaii has no representative available, but will endeavor to be represented by proxy.

Aid White Plague Fight.
The Chamber also placed its stamp of approval on the fight made by the Palama settlement against tuberculosis. The $100 monthly fund will be continued.

A letter was received from E. C. Brown, formerly of Honolulu, now representing the Dearborn Drug Company in the Far East, in which Mr. Brown comments on the tendency of Manila newspapers and business men to criticize anything Hawaiian.

Another communication was from Postmaster J. G. Pratt, who made a statement on Hawaii's postal deficit. The statement is for the four quarterly periods ending June 30, 1910.

His statement includes only such expenditures as are made by postmasters at the various offices in Hawaii, for the service specified, and does not include the most of mail transportation service, amounting to $97,123.00, or the services of the division of postoffice inspectors estimated as amounting to $5000.

Postal Deficit Figures.
For the quarter which ended September 30, 1909, the gross postal receipts were $39,274.64 and the compensation to postmasters was $10,424.76, with the compensation to clerks in the various offices amounting to $10,079.34. The city delivery service cost $4285.12.

For the quarter ending December 31, 1909, the receipts were $46,790.32; compensation to postmasters $11,447.39; compensation to clerks, $4232.74; for quarter ending March 31, 1910, the receipts were $15,328.46; compensation to postmasters, $11,119.65; to clerks, $10,614.60; city delivery service, $4273.23; for quarter ending June 30, 1910, receipts, $41,555.10; compensation to postmasters, $10,974.45; compensation to clerks, $11,485.24; city delivery service, $4247.43.

The total receipts were $173,249.12; total compensation to postmasters, $44,279.25; total compensation to clerks, $42,970.34; total for city delivery service, $17,038.52.

TO RUN RACE ON NEW YEAR'S

O'Rourke was to come to Honolulu some time ago to race Copit for $500, but failed to come. He realized that the track here had no fence and no gate receipts could be had to defray expenses. He expects 1500 or 2000 people to see the best two horses ever imported into the Islands run a race for blood at $1 admission.

Jerry has already sent for a jockey to come down and ride his prize. O'Rourke has also a California boy to ride his horse. Broderick has a host of friends in Honolulu who will back the little chestnut mare to a standstill. He expects to leave on the 15th for Hilo. He will have a string of four or five horses besides his own to train, and he also is taking along with him the old veteran horse trainer King to assist him in getting his string into condition.

FALLS OF CLYDE SAILS.

TONIGHT'S BILL AT ORPHEUM

The bill at the New Orpheum will undergo an entire change this evening. "The Lotteryman," a farce that created a furore on Broadway and delighted theatergoers throughout the mainland, will be the attraction this evening and for the remainder of the week, including Saturday matinee.

"The Lotteryman" is regarded as one of the funniest farces ever written, and as the plot and situations are along lines that are distinctly novel, there is much scope for clever work. George B. Howard, who will assume the role of the financially embarrassed newspaper man, who conceives a scheme to raffle himself off, has a wonderfully funny part in this piece. Miss Eva Martella, as the spinster, has a bit of character work which she scores tremendously in. Robert McKim, Guy Hittner, Charles Murphy, Dorcas Matthews, Marion Dunn and Betty Johnson are included in the cast.

"Our New Minister," for three nights only—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—will be the attraction next week, to be followed at the week's end by "Other People's Money." "Our New Minister" is full of the colors of New England and the sweetness and simplicity of New Englanders. Briefly, the play concerns the career of a ne'er-do-well of Hardscrabble, who, convicted as complicity in a crime of burglary, has been discharged from jail. The town is none too eager to have him back, and the efforts of the town constable to keep close watch over the recreant one furnish comicality. Up to the time the figures were checked over, it was not definitely known whether McClellan or Petrie had been named, though McClellan was pretty sure.

NEW BAND STAND

As a result of the appreciation of the public for the band concerts that have been given at the Pleasanton hotel the management of that popular place have caused the erection of a new band stand within the grounds. The new band stand is made with an iron frame and a canvas roof and the finishing touches were given to it yesterday.

There will be a concert in the new stand this evening, commencing at 7:30. A driveway has been made around the stand so that autos and other vehicles can circle it. Captain Berger has provided a special program of selections for this evening and there will be seats for all who attend. Should it rain, the verandas are sufficiently spacious to afford shelter to all visitors. The public is always invited to the Pleasanton's concerts.

OFFICIAL VOTE CAST ON OAHU

Fern Wins by 52 Votes—McClellan Is Sure of Place On Board.

Joe Fern is re-elected Mayor by a majority of 52 votes over John C. Lane, and W. H. McClellan is sent back to the Board of Supervisors, getting forty-eight votes more than Lester Petrie. Jim Quinn was the only Republican supervisorial candidate to be defeated, his vote being 229 behind McClellan and 181 behind Petrie.

These are the principal items of interest in the official figures on the City and County election as made out by City Clerk Kahanakalani this morning. Up to the time the figures were checked over, it was not definitely known whether McClellan or Petrie had been named, though McClellan was pretty sure.

The figures are as follows, those marked with (*) being the successful candidates:

RUSSIA ALARMED BY ACTS OF JAPANESE

ST. PETERSBURG, October 22.—In spite of the Russo-Japanese agreement, commercial men in the Far East are alarmed at the activity of Japan in Manchuria. Not only Russian merchants but Britishers, Americans and Germans engaged in Far Eastern trade, believe the "open door" will presently be slammed to by the rest of the world. After them there will be the reconstruction of the Antung-Mukden Railway if all goes well next year.

Kahanakalani (R) *	Auditor.	3764

CHIEF JUSTICE WILL NOT SIT

Because of his relationship with two of the trustees under the will of the late Bernice Pauahi Bishop, Chief Justice Hartwell is not qualified to sit in the case pending before the court in which the construction of a clause in the will referring to the Kamehameha Schools comes up on a bill for instructions asked for by the trustees themselves.

Chief Justice Hartwell is related to both trustees, Judd and Carter, and brought the question up himself when the case first came into court.

The opinion of the court is written by Associate Justice Perry, and he finds that under Section 84 of the Organic Act the chief justice will not be able to sit, because of his relationship with the trustees named.

Lurline for Port Allen Tomorrow.

Castle & Cooke, the local agents for the Matson Navigation line, Lurline will dispatch that vessel for Port Allen tomorrow. The steamer has a quantity of general cargo for the Garden Island port. From there the Lurline proceeds to Kahului and thence to Kona. At each port the steamer will discharge freight and gather up what sugar and pine may be ready for shipment to the coast. It is the present intention to dispatch the Lurline for San Francisco on November 17th or the 18th. The former date may be definitely decided upon when the steamer returns from a visit to the island ports.

POLICE WOULD UNFOLD MYSTER

Why Japanese Woman Attempt to Take Her Life.

The Japanese woman who attempted to take her life at a Beretania street lodging house early Tuesday morning and was taken to the Queen Hospital is in supposedly dying condition, gives promise of pull through without serious results. It is pronounced in a fair way to speed recovery.

Considerable mystery attached itself to the case owing to the series of conflicting statements made by the woman.

All witnesses admit with the woman, that she attempted to take her life by firing a bullet into her mouth, a thirty-two calibre revolver. Owing to the condition of the woman she has been unable to add further light upon a matter that has had to do with her attempting recovery.

Four Japanese have been held at the station pending a further investigation. One claims to have found a woman at her own home but a few minutes before she fired the shot.

Another Japanese had stated to the police that there were at least four countrymen seated on a lanai directly in front of the room in which the woman tried to kill herself.

Still other Japanese claim that the woman was at another house until a few moments before she used a revolver with the determination of ending her existence.

The woman admits having fired shot herself, hence there can be no suspicion that a murder had been attempted.

The cause of the shooting is baffling the detective force here. As the woman improves in health it may be able to add further light on what is now considered a very baffling case.

BULLETIN ADS PAY

Travelers who have come through by the Siberia route from the China coast ports have been immensely impressed by the signs observable between the Yalu and the Liao. At Hsin-Wu they came to the junction of racial ambitions—the new bridge across the Yalu, which will link Manchuria to Fusan. On the northern side are 5000 Japanese waiting to snatch the benefits of the trade that is developing along the river. To help them there will be the reconstruction of the Antung-Mukden Railway if all goes well next year.

At Mukden 5000 and at Fushun 3000 Japanese represent more tentacles of this advancing horde from Yama and Tokio. Backed by commercial progress, military power and way development, the Japanese have the game their own way, so far as can be seen today. In the leased territory of the Liaoning peninsula, from Arthur to Pu-lan-tien, there are 30,000 Japanese and at Liaoyang Haicheng and Kungchulin are fully 15,000 Chinese troops, well equipped and admirably provided for. More could be accommodated at short notice.
